The USA Isn't a Country, It's a Corporation!

"We the People of the United States, in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America." — Preamble of the original "organic" Constitution.

"We hold these truths to be self-evident. That all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights; that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness; that to secure these rights, governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed; that whenever any form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the right of the people to alter or abolish it, and to institute new government, laying its foundation on such principles, and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their safety and happiness." — Excerpt from the Declaration of Independence of the original thirteen united states of America, July 4, 1776.

Fourth of July 2002 has come and gone, and Americans honored the holiday with a renewed patriotic fervor that reminded me of the Bicentennial celebrations of 1976. As is customary, traditional fireworks displays took center stage and scores of people turned out to witness the dazzling show in the summer sky. With mixed feelings, I sat with friends on a crowded Pennsylvania sidewalk beneath a glittering, mesmerizing explosion of color, pondering the keen sense of sadness and betrayal that overwhelmed my spirit. Looking around at the huge crowds gathered for the annual events, I thought silently, "We are not free." In truth, we have not been a free people for a very long time.

We celebrate this day in honor of our “independence”. We call ourselves a free people in a land of liberty. Our anthems proudly sing the praises of this nation, and we raise our voices, wave our flags and join in song — but how many Americans realize they are not free? This is a myth perpetuated by the powers-that-be in order to avoid any major civil unrest, and to keep us all living under the thumb of a militaristic corporate Big Brother within the illusions that have been created for us. The truth of the matter is this: what freedom has not been stolen from us, we have surrendered willingly through our silence and ignorance. As Americans, most of us have no idea how our freedoms are maintained — or lost. Apparently, our ancestors didn't have a good grasp of this either. It is sad, but it is also very true.

Don't point to that beloved parchment, the Constitution, as a symbol of your enduring freedom. It is representative of a form of government which seemingly no longer exists in this country today. The Constitution has been thrown out the window, the Republic shoved aside and replaced with a democracy. The thing is; most people in this country remain unaware that this is so because they simply do not know the truth — what lies beyond the myths. Your so-called government is not going to tell you, either.

To even begin to understand what has happened to the Republic, we must look backward in time to the period following the Civil War. We must go back to the year 1871, which was the beginning of the decline of the Republic. When we examine what happened during that time in our history, we begin to piece together this troubling, perplexing puzzle that is “America” — only then should we answer as to whether we are indeed a “free” people or not.

So, let's roll backward into the past for a moment. It is time we learned what they didn't teach us in school. It is far more interesting than what they DID tell us. I think you'll stay awake for this lesson.

The date is February 21, 1871 and the Forty-First Congress is in session. I refer you to the “Acts of the Forty-First Congress,” Section 34, Session III, chapters 61 and 62. On this date in the history of our nation, Congress passed an Act titled: “An Act To Provide A Government for the District of Columbia.” This is also known as the “Act of 1871.” What does this mean? Well, it means that Congress, under no constitutional authority to do so, created a separate form of government for the District of Columbia, which is a ten mile square parcel of land.

What??? How could they do that? Moreover, WHY would they do that? To explain, let's look at the circumstances of those days. The Act of 1871 was passed at a vulnerable time in America. Our nation was essentially bankrupt — weakened and financially depleted in the aftermath of the Civil War. The Civil War itself was nothing more than a calculated “front” for some pretty fancy footwork by corporate backroom players. It was a strategic maneuver by European interests (the international bankers) who were intent upon gaining a stranglehold on the neck (and the coffers) of America.

The Congress realized our country was in dire financial straits, so they cut a deal with the international bankers — (in those days, the Rothschilds of London were dipping their fingers into everyone's pie) thereby incurring a DEBT to said bankers. If we think about banks, we know they do not just lend us money out of the goodness of their hearts. A bank will not do anything for you unless it is entirely in their best interest to do so. There has to be some sort of collateral or some string attached which puts you and me (the borrower) into a subservient position. This was true back in 1871 as well. The conniving international bankers were not about to lend our floundering nation any money without some serious stipulations. So, they devised a brilliant way of getting their foot in the door of the United States (a prize they had coveted for some time, but had been unable to grasp thanks to our Founding Fathers, who despised them and held them in check), and thus, the Act of 1871 was passed.

~~In essence, this Act formed the corporation known as THE UNITED STATES. Note the capitalization, because it is important.~~

This corporation, owned by foreign interests, moved right in and shoved the original “organic” version of the Constitution into a dusty corner. With the “Act of 1871,” our Constitution was defaced in the sense that the title was block-capitalized and the word “for” was changed to the word “of” in the title. The original Constitution drafted by the Founding Fathers, was written in this manner:

“The Constitution for the united states of America.”

The altered version reads: “THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA”. It is the corporate constitution. It is NOT the same document you might think it is. The corporate constitution operates in an economic capacity and has been used to fool the People into thinking it is the same parchment that governs the Republic. It absolutely is not.

Capitalization — an insignificant change? Not when one is referring to the context of a legal document, it isn't. Such minor alterations have had major impacts on each subsequent generation born in this country. What the Congress did with the passage of the Act of 1871 was create an entirely new document, a constitution for the government of the District of Columbia. The kind of government THEY created was a corporation. The new, altered Constitution serves as the constitution of the corporation, and not that of America. Think about that for a moment.

Incidentally, this corporate constitution does not benefit the Republic. It serves only to benefit the corporation. It does nothing good for you or me — and it operates outside of the original Constitution. Instead of absolute rights guaranteed under the “organic” Constitution, we now have “relative” rights or privileges. One example of this is the Sovereign's right to travel, which has been transformed under corporate government policy into a “privilege” which we must be licensed to engage in. This operates outside of the original Constitution.

So, Congress committed TREASON against the People, who were considered Sovereign under the Declaration of Independence and the organic Constitution. When we consider the word “Sovereign,” we must think about what the word means. According to Webster's Dictionary, “sovereign” is defined as:

1. Chief or highest; supreme.
2. Supreme in power, superior in position to all others.
3. Independent of, and unlimited by, any other, possessing or entitled to, original and independent authority or jurisdiction.

In other words, our government was created by and for “sovereigns” — the free citizens who were deemed the highest authority. Only the People can be sovereign — remember that. Government cannot be sovereign. We can also look to the Declaration of Independence, where we read: “government is subject to the consent of the governed” — that's supposed to be us, the sovereigns. Do you feel like a sovereign nowadays? I don't.

It doesn't take a rocket scientist or a constitutional historian to figure out that this is not what is happening in our country today. Government in these times is NOT subject to the consent of the governed. Rather, the governed are subject to the whim and greed of the corporation, which has stretched its tentacles beyond the ten-mile-square parcel of land known as the District of Columbia — encroaching into every state of the Republic. Mind you, the corporation has NO jurisdiction outside of the District of Columbia. THEY just want you to think it does.

You see, you are presumed to know the law. This is ironic because as a people, we are taught basically nothing about the law in school. We are made to memorize obscure factoids and paragraphs here and there, such as the Preamble, and they gloss over the Bill of Rights. But we are not told about the law. Nor do our corporate government schools delve into the Constitution in any great depth. After all, they were put into place to indoctrinate and dumb down the masses — not to teach us anything. We were not told that we were sold-out to foreign interests and made beneficiaries of the debt incurred by Congress to the international bankers. For generations, American citizens have had the bulk of their earnings confiscated to pay on a massive debt that they, as a People, did not incur. There are many, many things the People have not been told. How do you feel about being made a beneficiary of somebody else's massive debt without your knowledge or consent? Are we gonna keep going along with this?? When you hear some individuals say that the Constitution is null and void, think about how our government has transformed over time from a municipal or service-oriented entity to a corporate or profit-oriented entity. We are living under the myth that this is lawful, but it is not. We are being ruled by a “de facto,” or unlawful, form of government — the corporate body of the death-mongers — The Controllers.

With the passage of the Act of 1871, a series of subtle and overt deceptions were set in motion — all in conjunction and collusion with the Congress, who knowingly and deliberately sold the People down the river. Did they tell you this in government school? I doubt it. They were too busy drumming the fictional version of history into your brain — and mine. By failing to disclose what THEY did to the American People, the people became ignorant of what was happening. Over time, the Republic took it on the chin to the point of a knockdown. With the surrender of their gold in 1933, the People essentially surrendered their law. I don't suppose you were taught THAT in school either. That's because our REAL history is hidden from us. This is the way Roman Civil Law works — and our form of governance today is based upon Roman Civil Law and Admiralty/Maritime Law — better known as the “Divine Right of Kings” and “Law of the Seas”, respectively. This explains a lot. Roman Civil Law was fully established in the original colonies even before our nation began and is also known as private international law.

The government which was created for the District of Columbia via the Act of 1871 operates under Private International Law, and not Common Law, which was the law of the Constitutional Republic. This is very important to note since it impacts all Americans in concrete ways. You must recognize that private international law is only applicable within the District of Columbia and NOT in the other states of the Union. The various arms of the corporation are known as “departments” such as the Judiciary, Justice and Treasury. You recognize those names? Yes, you do! But they are not what you assume them to be. These “departments” all belong to the corporation known as THE UNITED STATES. They do NOT belong to you and me under the corporate constitution and its various amendments that operate outside of the Constitutional Republic.

I refer you to the UNITED STATES CODE (note the capitalization, indicating the corporation, not the Republic) Title 28 3002 (15) (A) (B) (C). It is stated unequivocally that the UNITED STATES is a corporation. Realize, too, that the corporation is not a separate and distinct entity from the government. It IS the government. YOUR government. This is extremely important. I refer to this as the “corporate empire of the UNITED STATES,” which operates under Roman Civil Law outside of the Constitution. How do you like being ruled by a cheesy, sleazy corporation? You'll ask your Congressperson about this, you say? HA!!

Congress is fully aware of this deception. You must be made aware that the members of Congress do NOT work for you and me. Rather, they work for the Corporation known as THE UNITED STATES. Is this really any surprise to you? This is why we can't get them to do anything on our behalf or to answer to us — as in the case with the illegal income tax — among many other things. Contrary to popular belief, they are NOT our civil servants. They do NOT work for us. They are the servants of the corporate government and carry out its bidding. Period.

The great number of committees and sub-committees that the Congress has created all work together like a multi-headed monster to oversee the various corporate “departments.” And, you should know that every single one of these that operates outside the District of Columbia is in violation of the law. The corporate government of the UNITED STATES has no jurisdiction or authority in ANY state of the Republic beyond the District of Columbia. Let this sink into your brain for a minute. Ask yourself, "Could this deception REALLY have occurred without the full knowledge and complicity of the Congress?" Do you think it happened by accident? You are deceiving yourself if you do. There are no accidents or coincidences. It is time to confront the truth and awaken from ignorance.

Your legislators will not apprise you of this information. You are presumed to know the law. THEY know you don't know the law, or your history for that matter, because this information has not been taught to you. No concerted effort has been made to inform you. As a Sovereign, you are entitled to full disclosure of the facts. As a slave, you are entitled to nothing other than what the corporation decides to "give" you — at a price. Be wary of accepting so-called "benefits" of the corporation of the UNITED STATES. Aren't you enslaved enough already?

I said (above) that you are presumed to know the law. Still, it matters not if you don't in the eyes of the corporation. Ignorance of the law is not considered an excuse. It is your responsibility and your obligation as an American to learn about the law and how it applies to you. THEY count on the fact that most people are too uninterested or distracted or lazy to do so. The People have been mentally conditioned to allow the alleged government to do their thinking for them. We need to turn that around if we are to save our Republic before it is too late.

The UNITED STATES government is basically a corporate instrument of the international bankers. This means YOU are owned by the corporation from birth to death. The corporate UNITED STATES also holds ownership of all your assets, your property, and even your children. Does this sound untrue? Think long and hard about all those bills you pay, all those various taxes and fines and licenses you must pay for. Yes, they've got you by the pockets. Actually, they've had you by the ass for as long as you've been alive. In your heart, you know it's true. Don't believe any of this? Read up on the 14th Amendment. Check out how "free" you really are.

With the Act of 1871 and subsequent legislation such as the purportedly ratified 14th Amendment, our once-great nation of Sovereigns has been subverted from a Republic to a democracy. As is the case under Roman Civil Law, our ignorance of the facts has led to our silence. Our silence has been construed as our consent to become beneficiaries of a debt we did not incur. The Sovereign People have been deceived for hundreds of years into thinking they remain free and independent, when in actuality we continue to be slaves and servants of the corporation.

Treason was committed against the People in 1871 by the Congress. This could have been corrected through the decades by some honest men (assuming there were some), but it was not, mainly due to lust for money and power. Nothing new there. Are we to forgive and justify this crime against the People? You have lost more freedom than you may realize due to corporate infiltration of the so-called government. We will lose more unless we turn away from a democracy that is the direct road to disaster — and restore our Constitutional Republic.

In an upcoming article, we'll take a closer look at the purportedly ratified 14th Amendment and how we became "property" of the corporation and enslaved by our silence.

I am saddened to think about the brave men and women who were killed in all the wars and conflicts instigated by the Controllers. These courageous souls fought for the preservation of ideals they believed to be true — not for the likes of a corporation. Do you believe that any one of the individuals who have been killed as a result of war would have willingly fought if they knew the full truth? Do you think one person would have laid down his life for a corporation? I think not. If the People had known long ago to what extent their trust had been betrayed, I wonder how long it would have taken for another Revolution. What we need is a Revolution in THOUGHT. We change our thinking and we change our world. Will we ever restore the Republic? That is a question I cannot answer yet. I hope, and most of all — pray — that WE, the Sovereign People, will work together in a spirit of cooperation to make it happen in this lifetime. I know I will give it my best shot — come what may. Our children deserve their rightful legacy — the liberty our ancestors fought so hard to give to us. Will we remain silent telling ourselves we are free, and perpetuate the MYTH? Or, do we stand as One Sovereign People, and take back what has been stolen from the house of our Republic? Something to think about — it's called freedom.

My heartfelt thanks goes out to the following people for their gracious and generous assistance in researching this subject: Ken S. of American Revolution II Online News, Paul Walker of RMN News, Bob Taft, Stanooch, and Willy Whitten — true Patriots, one and all.

Dear Lisa,

Thanks for writing this great article. I confess I'm ignorant of our history, but I am trying to educate myself thru articles like yours. Better late than never!

Shame on the American people for letting this knowledge get swept under the mat. I think if enough people were made aware of how our country has been taken over by the Illuminati, they would be outraged! But I guess they are too consumed with gathering up material wealth instead about caring about our rights under the Constitution! Unfortunately it will probably be too late the way our economy is going.

Unless we stand up now, and force this corruption out, these crooks of the constitution will win out.

There is a much longer history of coup d'états by central banksters to which the Congressional ACT of 1871 appears to be another pivotal link. After setting the UNITED STATES up as a 'federal corporation' in 1871, a supreme court decision was orchestrated in 1886 to give the status of 'personhood' to the entity called 'corporation'. Before 1886, "until the bizarre Santa Clara County v. Southern Pacific Railroad Supreme Court case in 1886 – only humans are entitled to human rights in their community." Thom Hartmann stated it this way, also in his 2002 article: "Americans Revolt in Pennsylvania – New Battle Lines Are Drawn"

commondreams.org/views02/1219-06.htm

The implications of this are staggering. For example:

Before 1886, it was a felony in most states for corporations to give money to politicians or otherwise try (through lobbying or advertising) to influence elections. Such activity was called "bribery and influencing," and the reason it was banned was simple: corporations can't vote, so what are they doing in politics? Their concern is making money, and they don't need clean air to breathe or fresh water to drink; leave them to making money and leave the administration of the commons to We, The People.

Before 1886, it was a crime in most states for corporations to own others of their own kind. The need to keep corporations from becoming so large that they could usurp democracy was so clear to the Founders that Jefferson and Madison proposed an 11th Amendment to the Constitution that would have banned "monopolies in commerce," restricting each company to performing a single purpose, making it responsible to its local community, and barring it from owning other corporations. The amendment didn't pass because everybody at the time knew that the states already had such laws in place.

Before 1886, only humans had full First Amendment rights of free speech, including the right to influence legislation and the right to lie when not under oath. Now corporations have claimed that they have the free speech right to influence public opinion and legislation through deceit, and a case based on a multinational corporation asserting this right is poised to go before the Supreme Court as you read these words. That corporation reserves the right to fire and even prosecute human employees who lie to it, however.

Before 1886, only humans had Fourth Amendment rights of privacy. Since then, however, corporations have claimed that EPA and OSHA surprise inspections are violations of their human right of privacy, while at the same time asserting their right to perform surprise inspections of their own employees' bodily fluids, phone conversations, and keystrokes.

Before 1886, only humans had Fifth Amendment rights against double jeopardy and the right to refuse to speak if they'd committed a crime. Since 1886, corporations have asserted these human rights for themselves: the results range from today's corporate scandals to 60 years of silence about the deadliness of tobacco and asbestos.

Before 1886, and following the Civil War, only humans had Fourteenth Amendment rights to protection from discrimination. Since then, corporations have claimed this human right and used it to stop local communities from passing laws to protect their small, local businesses and keep out predatory retailers or large corporations convicted of crimes elsewhere.

Thank you dear editor wariscrime for refreshing this 2002 article to bring in yet another missing piece of the puzzle – the preceding ACT of 1871 – the following Article-15 of US Code is all revealing:

assembler.law.cornell.edu/uscode/html/uscode28/usc_sec_28_00003002---000-.html

(15) "United States" means—

(A) a Federal corporation;

(B) an agency, department, commission, board, or other entity of the United States; or

(C) an instrumentality of the United States.

This is a set pattern, interestingly. In continuation of the scheme to take over the financial control of the United States, the 1910 Federal Reserve ACT got enacted in 1913 to create our beloved Federal Reserve System. It is as much federal, as federal express.

The final pattern is world control – and this can be gleaned in these two analysis:

Great article. So simple to see how the usurpers of the power of our personal sovereignty have engineered this infiltration so they can maintain their precious 'divine right of kings.' As we who know the truth continue to pull our hair out thinking of ways to get through to our fellow citizens, I continue to use this basic thought as a foundation towards any attempts to wake them up: The banking system that oversees and controls the 'money' that virtually every American is dependent upon for their material well-being produces NONE of the material wealth that that 'money' is supposed to represent. And those who produce ALL of that material wealth control NONE of its representation. This bogus 'divine right' has had ages in which to hone its craft of boiling us lobsters in slow but steady increments so as not to alert the crustaceans to becoming aware of what's happening to them which would get them to clamoring out of the pot before it's too late. Sic semper tyrannis!

After all, government is sold out to the highest corporate bidder. When the gov't needs illegal wire-taps, Verizon allows them secret rooms to listen in on calls. When Haliburton (and KBR) need more revenue, the gov't hands out no-bid contracts. When the gov't dislikes literature, Amazon, Wikipedia and Facebook ban the book "America Deceived". The corporations own our government, not the people.

Have you ever considered that ignorance of The Masses is just a normal part of Life? Of human HISTORY? That the majority of human beings CHOOSE laziness and ignorance? That waking up The Masses is absolutely, unequivocally futile?

January 23, 2009 at 00:34

You got it perfectly right, Insightful! The majority really choose to ignore the "real reality", though not consciously (otherwise it wouldn't be a complete ignorance) but intuitively – as a potential danger to the illusion their whole world is based upon.

As Morpheus says in the Matrix movie, "... most of these people are not ready to be unplugged. And many of them are so inert, so hopelessly dependent on the system that they will fight to protect it."

So, yes, waking up "the masses" is absolutely, inequitably futile, and would only make the things more complicated. But there is a wonderful minority, some sleeping "Neos" and "Trinities," who are ready to get unplugged. This minority is worth it to wake up – the best proof of it is that the world is actually pushed into the abyss by just a different kind of minority.

It is said that during the American Revolution 1/3 of the colonists were indifferent to the cause(they CHOSE laziness and ignorance)1/3 CHOSE to side with the British(known as the Tories) and 1/3 CHOSE to be a part of the Revolution. Had this last third NOT made this choice a new world order would have been implemented long ago. The great 'American Experiment' never would have gotten off the ground. That's how impactful it all was and how important to the hope of freedom for mankind those people who are now 'rolling over in their graves' were. Which one of the third are you?

January 23, 2009 at 00:53

Dear Ghost, I'm not sure this division into "thirds" is justified. The 'American Experiment' was planned and controlled from the City of London from the very beginning. As was the program 'adjustment' called 'revolution,' which was a revolution only in a literal sense of the word: revolving around an immobile center, that is, without changing the initial direction of the 'coach.'

Ghost of Samuel Adams says:

January 23, 2009 at 14:43

Admin, You make it sound as though the Illuminati are always in control of their plan. While I will concede that my use of the word 'Experiment' was inaccurate and agree with you that the original plan was for an American experiment, you may want to consider how the best laid plans can go awry. I don't think the British expected in their wildest dreams that their army would suffer the defeat on the battlefield that they did. Remember, they perceived themselves to be this invincible military power. They were lulled into a false sense of complacency by their victories over armies on the European continent. They had absolutely no clue about how to counter the guerilla fighting tactics of the Americans. Their arrogance lost them the war on the battlefield. It was that same initial arrogance which planned to foment an uprising of the colonists with the anticipated outcome of putting down the rebellion.(How hard could it be to squash these upstart rabble-rousers after defeating the 'creme de la creme' armies of Europe?) This is when they had to implement 'Plan B' so to speak. THIS is what involved that 'immobile center, as you aptly put it, that being the financial umbilical cord to the City of London. It is most definitely from the spilled blood of American patriots that has allowed for a New World Order to be forestalled. And of course to this day we (humanity in general) STILL haven't realized our ability to grow by cutting off that damn cord! Just how long can a fetus stay alive in the womb? Not much longer I'm afraid.

January 23, 2009 at 15:11

I'm sorry, Ghost, but when talking about "the spilled blood of American patriots" we shouldn't forget that initially they were invaders and slaughtered over 9 million Native Americans to become "patriots". Also, the City of London doesn't equal the British at all. Just like the CFR doesn't equal America (even if it controls America more and more overtly). As for who won on the battlefield, remember that the house of Rothschilds financed BOTH sides (as they always do), so whoever won, it was THEIR victory.

I truly believe in my heart that every American should read this article. Americans had better wake up before it's too late. Americans don't understand that most of our history is a lie- only what they want us to know. The media continues to do that today. Americans should understand that there is no difference between Democrat and Republican. We are corporate owned. Thanks for the courage to write such a piece, and I hope this message gets out loud and clear before it's too late.

I was also going to exactly note what Admin #10 already stated, he took the words right out of my mind.

In addition, wrt to the American Revolution, Patrick Henry's call for 'give me liberty or give me death' only mobiized 3 to 5 percent of the 'patriotic' colonists, not 1/3.

With respect to admin's comment #6 and citing the evidence of the tiny minority controlling the world, perhaps he has forgotten that they don't do it alone, in Skousen's words:

Of course we should be quick to recognize that no small group could wield such gigantic power unless millions of people in all walks of life were "in on the take" and were willing to knuckle down to the iron-clad regimentation of the ruthless bosses behind the scenes. As we shall see, the network has succeeded in building its power structure by using tremendous quantities of money (together with the vast influence it buys) to manipulate, intimidate, or corrupt millions of men and women and their institutions on a world-wide basis.'

Having said that, human action is indeed non-linear. Gandhi's non-cooperation movement, based on civil disobedience, and the on his profound concept of "satyagarh" (one must study it to understand its philosophical underpinnings, a worthwhile venture) were a tiny minority in India. Yet it dramatically accelarated the early termination of the umbilical cord of Brittany to its 'jewel in the crown'.

Yes, only a tiny minority can make a non-linear storm, akin to a butterfly flapping its wings in Colorado altering the weather in California. The insignificant acts can create a non-linear action, only if they are properly related.

This implies that it is the right kind of 'flapping of the wings', with the right set of butterflies, in the right system. The system and its relationship of 'equations' within which that non-linearity transpires is the key to the butterfly's power. Not by itself.

And what precludes such a system for our context, well, that was eloquently explained by Etienne de La Boétie in the 16th century in his much simplified treatise "The Politics of Obedience: The Discourse of Voluntary Servitude".

See its analysis and extension, if interested, in:

I hope you're enjoying our little debate, admin. Good exercise for the brain. The British army did the dirty work for the house of Rothschild, who virtually 'owned' Great Britain through their Bank of England. You're splitting hairs here. Essentially we are in agreement as to their ability to maintain control. Nonetheless, a 'Plan B' WAS necessitated by the unexpected results on the battlefield. And today, pursuant to their 'great work of the ages, the American military, HQ'd in the D of C, through the CFR, etc. is the strong arm of the Illuminati War, Financial, Religious Triad. And yes, it is true that Rothschild funded both sides of the conflict. But the fact that virtually everyone figured it was a slam dunk that the British Army would be victorious on the battlefield (much like the hockey game between the Americans and the Russians in the 1980 Olympics) was irrelevant to them. For them, the intent was, as always, wait for it... To make money! I'll let some other commenter elaborate on this. If no one does, then may I suggest you support David Icke's important work and buy his books. He can give you the scoop on that if you read him thoroughly enough. As to the slaughter of the native-Americans, what's your point? You could view this genocide in different ways. Sure, many European settlers and their descendants who became Revolutionary 'patriots', along with THEIR descendants were complicit in this. There's certainly no confusion about what is termed 'patriotism' (in your context) demonstrating saintly behavior. But then again, could it be argued that something at least along the lines of 'saintly behavior' could have been shown by certain of those among the founding fathers? Enough so that the adoption of a Bill of Rights was able to prevail, which was THE crucial aspect of those Constitutional documents? Is it not reasonable to suggest that these amendments are the primary instrument which stopped a NWO in its tracks? A NWO which would have resulted in the TOTAL annihilation of the indigenous peoples? And one that threatens to annihilate many more than that today? Very few on the planet can, or dare to imagine the magnitude of horror being planned for humanity. Personally, I don't think they can pull it off. At least not to the extent they want. And whatever THAT may be, will be short-lived anyway. But they certainly are relentless anal-retentive bastards. In conclusion, all I will say is this: If you do nothing else in the next few years, at least hold on to your love and don't ever let go. In our heart of hearts we all know it's the only 'place' where we find our true reality. No matter what happens.

Our U.S. Constitution is alive, if not well. The demagogues who have usurped our sovereignty as citizens, States, and The Republic are running like savage dogs, snapping and snarling without restraint. In my opinion, they will soon be chasing their own tails and will self destruct. I, as an 80 year old, may not be around to see it but, God willing, I could be and I will be ready to help pick up the pieces. I don't know that dynamic insurrection at this point would achieve more than sporadic islands of self- gratification. The enemy of our sovereign rights employs a self-defeating system, and, left to its' logical conclusion will turn on itself. It cannot come to any other end. When THAT happens, the question will remain as to whether there exists enough MORALITY among the survivors to re-establish a righteous government of The People, by The People, and For The People.

The Genie is out of the bottle since our defeat in the War Between The States. To accomplish what was originally instituted by the 13 Colonies...a lot of people who have set up house-keeping here, will need to "go home" or be given "one way tickets" as Thos. Jefferson tried to inspire. Do you have the stomach for that

One thing that people must remember is that this is all prophecized. These things have to happen. Though all or most physical forms of slavery are no longer upon us, mental slavery will always be in existance. This is why Jesus (God) must and will eventually return to save us cause most of us are too weak to save ourselves. I know exactly what it takes to make our economy better, but it wont't happen. Greed and power has destroyed our country and eventually will destroy our world. Only Jesus can save us. However, I will try my best to make things better for my society, family, and friends.

very interesting... Bryan, you might consider doing some info-surfing regarding the 1611 Bible<the only scripture ref. book acknowledged by the courts of the 'civil-world'. There is a movement afoot to acknowledge and understand the power of the 'Will' and 'Testament' of Jesus, The Christ. Its a very powerful process...requiring dedication and true-understanding of HIS Grace and Salvation IN THIS WORLD. After All...ask yourself "what year is it..." it appears on all Corporate Documents...especially earlier documents: 'in the year of the/our Lord...'.

All others...I enjoy the exercise in thought and 'thinking'... until we begin at ground zero and DO for ourselves, that which we can and must do, we cannot do for others. The Whole thing is based on individual sovereignty first. You must have sovereigns in order to Unite into a Sovereignty...all else is pure Corporate 'smoke and mirrors. Fortify the HOME Front...before assisting the Home-Fronts of others. The REST will fall into place, accordingly. Carry On...it All great intrigue...and the stuff that makes THIS LIFE...worth the Living...and Yes, in some cases...The Dying. THINK! Perhaps that's what its really ALL about...HOW WE LIVE THIS that is THE REAL ISSUE.

For myself...I am repeatedly humbled at the voluminous 'Historic EVIDENCES' of 'LIFE': SUCCESSFUL Examples of Trials and Tribulations encountered, endured, and overcome...by the common Man/Wo-Man, against the artifices AND edifices of other 'enlightened' elites...Hu-Mans/Hu-Wo-Mans. By the Way...that's another VERY INTERESTING journey; Man vs. Hu-Man(Human). Blessings to All... and remember... let's give THIS LIFE our All. KL

United States of America isn't the only Corporation. It makes sense that its Anglo parent too would be one.

See

And it would therefore make sense that the one-world government too would be structured as one.

To put this legalism in perspective, the following says it all:

Protocol No. 1:

3. It must be noted that men with bad instincts are more in number than the good, and therefore the best results in governing them are attained by violence and terrorisation, and not by academic discussions. Every man aims at power, everyone would like to become a dictator if only he could, and rare indeed are the men who would not be willing to sacrifice the welfare of all for the sake of securing their own welfare.

4. What has restrained the beasts of prey who are called men? What has served for their guidance hitherto?

5. In the beginnings of the structure of society, they were subjected to brutal and blind force; after words – to Law, which is the same force, only disguised. I draw the conclusion that by the law of nature right lies in force.

Excerpt from aztlan.net/protocols.htm#protocol1

And by the same force of law, Global Governance is being legally ushered in!

That Al Capone was a sop:

“On top of them both, sit the same handful of private banking families in their interlocking relationships, protected by their own hand-crafted instruments of commerce, trade-treaties, and their hand-picked political governance which creates for them the legal sanctions necessary for the entire global racket based on unpayable debt to flourish. Once a nation, like a person, can't pay its debts, demand for the proverbial “pound of flesh” is as convincing as making an offer one can't refuse. In contrast to the Neanderthal gangster Al Capone, or Michael Corelone in the blockbuster movie ‘The Godfather’, who weren't smart enough to change the laws of the land in favor of their criminal enterprises and therefore, the state's policing apparatus could be relied upon to eventually take parasites like them down, these banksters connivingly write the very laws of the land in their favor. They own, or control through proxy, the media, the legislatures, the executives, the think-tanks, the foundations, all levers of power, good and bad loans, and discourse itself, in pretty much all major societies – from G7 to G20 (excepting to some extent BRIC, Venezuela, and Iran) – cleverly hiding their own role behind the scenes in constructing their global fiefdom.” — Monetary Reform Bibliography

and

‘Ah – but what if the “criminals” were to write the laws and the statutes themselves? Then, the conniving and conspiring isn't legally defined as a crime, nor the “criminals” called criminals. In fact, most are called bankers (emperors previously), and their instruments today, foundations (fleets previously)! Isn't that just peachy?’ — Some Dare Call it Conspiracy! Are you among them?
